

Hosted by

Kindly supported by Saltgate

How Girls Learn

Sharing Expertise in the Education of Female Students

You are warmly invited to attend this two-day conference at Jersey College for Girls.

On Friday 6th November, from 10:45 - 16:45, four expert speakers will deliver lectures on a range of topics related to the education of female students.

Lunch will be available at Jersey College for Girls on Friday 6th November.

On Saturday 7th November, from 09:00 - 13:00, a series of seminars and practical workshops will be led by visiting speakers and by teachers.

If you would be interested in leading a workshop on Saturday 7th November then please contact Simon Milner at s.milner@jcg.sch.je

RSVP to Mrs Jane Dempster by Friday 2nd October, giving the names of all of the delegates you wish to bring to the conference.

Email: j.dempster@jcg.sch.je Tel: +44 (0)1534 516200

As numbers are limited, early responses are advised to secure your chance to hear eminent speakers free of charge.

The conference will:

Promote an understanding of the latest developments in educational theory relevant to the education of girls.

Facilitate the sharing of good practice and expertise between educational professionals involved in the education of girls.

Speakers

Professor Bill Lucas

(Director of Centre for Real World Learning at the University of Winchester; creator of the Expansive Education Network and co-author of Educating Ruby: what our children really need to learn): 'What Our Children Really Need to Learn: Expansive Education and How to Educate Ruby.'

Professor Gary McCulloch

(Brian Simon Professor of History of Education at the UCL Institute of Education): 'New Directions in the History of Education for Girls'.

C. J. Simister

(Educational consultant, author, and leading expert in promoting independent thinking and on the hidden barriers to success that can hold back high achieving girls): 'Educating Girls to be Future-Smart: The Importance of Character and Mindset.'

Adrienne Hopkins

(Gender Equality Advisor at the University of Oxford): 'Gender Inequalities in Higher Education: Trends, Influences and Responses'.